

A big thank you goes out to everyone who took the time to participate in our Update survey. We have reviewed all of your helpful feedback and suggestions, which we have applied to this issue of Update, and we will continue to draw upon your feedback when producing future issues.

From your survey results, we noticed a desire for a section of the Update to address formation. In this issue, we wanted to answer a question posed by one of our survey participants. This participant wanted to know:

How to form or join a CLC group as a returning CLC member.

RETURNING to CLC

Anyone interested in rejoining CLC can either contact a CLC member or an existing CLC. If they do not know any CLC member or group in the vicinity, then they can contact the Regional Representative who will help in reconnecting with CLC either through an existing group or by helping to facilitate the creation of a new group.

INTERESTED in CLC

Anyone interested in joining a CLC group or in finding out more about CLC has various options. The first could be as simple as making contact with a known CLC member or Jesuit in their area. The second is to directly contact the Regional Representative who will answer questions or help interested potential new members transition into CLC.

“Come and See” is the motto inscribed on our website, and we encourage anyone who knows of anyone who would like to find out more about what CLC is all about to direct their questions to the Regional Representatives. Some Regions do have a Formation Coordinator to address membership needs but the point of entry, through the Regional Representative, ensures a simple and uniform process across CLC Canada.

We have included the names and email addresses of each Regional Representative below (and they are also included on our website here: christianlifecommunity.ca)

Rockies Region (Alberta and BC): Leanne Salel email

Prairies Region (Sask., Man to Thunder Bay, Ont.): Kwan-Sue Crowe email

Central Region (Ontario): Magee McGuire email

Atlantic Region (NB, NS, PEI, NL): Jane Abernathy-Parker email
